Phil Lombardi, Clerk
U.S. DISTRICT COURT

IN RE:

SPECIAL CONDITION OF
PROBATION AND SUPERVISED
RELEASE

G.O. NO. 03- 2

ORDER

It is the order of the Court that the following special condition entitled "Special Computer Restriction and Monitoring Conditions" shall apply to all persons placed on probation, supervised release or pretrial release when deemed reasonable and specifically ordered by the Court based on the defendant's history and recognized rehabilitative concern or need to protect the community. The Special Computer Restriction and Monitoring Conditions shall read as follows:

1. The defendant shall disclose all e-mail accounts, Internet connections and Internet connection devices, including screen names and passwords, to the U.S. Probation Officer. The defendant shall immediately advise the U.S. Probation Officer of any changes in his or her e-mail accounts, connections, devices, or passwords.
2. If instructed by the U.S. Probation Officer, the defendant shall refrain from using e-mail, an Internet connection, or an Internet connection device. The U.S. Probation Officer shall have authority to monitor all computer activity, to include all e-mail or Internet connections, to include but not limited to installation of remote monitoring software. Unless waived by the U.S. Probation officer, the cost of remote monitoring software shall be paid by the defendant.
3. The defendant shall not access any on-line service using an alias, or access any on-line service using the Internet account, name, or designation of another person or entity. The defendant will report immediately to the U.S. Probation Officer access to any Internet site containing prohibited material.

4. The defendant is prohibited from using any form of encryption, cryptography, stenography, compression, password-protected files or other methods that limit access to, or change the appearance of, data and/or images.
5. The defendant is prohibited from altering or destroying records of computer use, including the use of software or functions designed to alter, clean or "wipe" computer media, block monitoring software, or restore a computer to a previous state.
6. If instructed, the defendant shall provide all personal and business telephone phone records and credit card statements to the U.S. Probation Officer.

SO ORDERED this 28 day of February 2003.
